United Nations Publications

Current Bibliographical Information, 22 issues a year, v.1- 1971-, United Nations, New York. ST/LIB/SER./K. $1.00/issue. This is a list of books, government publications, and selected periodical articles added to the Dag Hammarskjold Library. United Nations publications are not included. Books etc. are listed by broad subject classifications including social questions. Full citations are given.

Index to the Proceedings of the Economic and Social Council, Fourteenth Session-1952-. United Nations, New York. ST/LIB/SER.B/E. The subject index forms the body of this index, giving full citation and document symbol for each entry. The agenda of the session and an index to speeches are also included.

UNDEX: United Nations Documents Index. In three series, each with 10 issues a year. Series A: Subject Index, vol. 5, no.1, Jan. 1974-; Series B: Country Index, vol.5, no.1, Jan. 1974-; Series C: List of Documents Indexed, vol.1, no.1, Jan. 1974-. Annual subscription to the three series $80.00. The issues of Series A and B for the years 1970-1973 (vol.1-4) were for official distribution only. UNDEX replaced the United Nations Documents Index, vol.1-24, 1950-1973.

United States Publications

Abstracts for Social Workers, quarterly, v.1-1965-. Published by National Association of Social Workers, New York, New York. Subscription $30.00. This abstracting index covers social issues with emphasis on social work. International and foreign journals are covered as well as United States publications. Beginning in 1975 abstracts of doctoral dissertations in social work appear in the third issue of the year. This is a continuation of the listing of doctoral dissertations which appeared in Social Service Review from 1954 to 1974. These dissertations include material on social welfare in foreign countries. Journal articles and dissertations are indexed by subject and author.

International Bibliography, Information, Documentation, quarterly, v.1- 1973-. Published by Uniput, Box 433, Murray Hill Station, New York, New York, 10016. ISSN 000-0329. Subscription $22.50.

This bibliography lists publications of international organizations including the United Nations and its associated organizations such as WHO, UNESCO. The publication contains a Bibliographic Record and a Periodicals Record. The entries in the bibliographic section are grouped into about forty subject classifications, at least one-third of which are relevant to social welfare. Many entries are annotated. All include full citation and information for acquisition. A subject index cumulated for each volume provides detailed access to the entries in the Information and News Section and the Bibliographic and Periodicals Records. Bilingual or multilingual material is included, including titles published only in French or Spanish.

Library of Congress Catalog; Books: Subjects, The Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

The Library of Congress receives and catalogs documents from foreign countries as well as from United States publishers. Information on social welfare is listed under headings: "Public Welfare," "Social Problems," "Social Service," "Social Work...". Full Library of Congress cataloging information is given for each entry.

Public Affairs Information Service. Bulletin, weekly, v 1-1915-, Public Affairs Information Service, New York. ISSN 0033-3409. Subscription $150.00.

This index covers books, periodicals and government documents of the United States, United Nations and foreign countries. In subject scope it covers government, politics, economics and social issues. The format is the same used in the Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature: entries are arranged by author and subject in one alphabet. Full citations are given for each entry, including acquisitions information where appropriate.

FINDING INTERNATIONAL AND FOREIGN DOCUMENTS ON URBAN AFFAIRS

Prepared by Mary L. Pike
Urban Affairs Section

Ongoing acquisition and reference sources specifically aimed at urban affairs have been difficult to find. The two I have found most helpful are the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Office of Urban Affairs' Foreign Accessions List, which is issued irregularly and available free on request, and Bibliographia IULA-IFHP, a bimonthly, annotated listing of new publications received in the joint library of the International Union of Local Authorities and the International Federation for Housing and Planning. It is also available free from IFHP-IULA, 43-45 Wassenaarseweg, The Hague.

By broadening the scope to include all the social sciences, other sources can be added. Two are again library acquisition lists. From the U.N. Library, Current Bibliographical Information, a fortnightly subject listing that includes periodical articles. The Joint Bank-Fund Library (International Monetary Fund and International Bank for Reconstruction and Development) publishes a List of Recent Additions, a monthly list arranged by their modified Dewey Decimal classification system. A third source is the Public Affairs Information Service Foreign Language Index, which is published quarterly.

If one needs the documents of a specific country or a specific international group, the best approach may be to write for acquisition and/or publication lists directly. The Eugene P. Sheehy, Guide to Reference Books, 9th edition, ALA, lists national bibliographies and guides in its "Government Publications" section. Another source is the G. K. Hall, Bibliographic Guide to Government Publications: Foreign 1976.

For help in finding a specific group or foreign government, consult one of the following directories:

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Office of International Affairs. Urban Institutions Abroad. Washington, 1974.

Anderson, I. G., ed. Directory of European Associations. V. 1: Trade and Professional Associations. Detroit, Gale, 1971.

International Social Science Journal. World Index of Social Science Institutions. Paris, UNESCO.

Yearbook of International Organizations, 15th edition. Brussels, Union of International Associations, 1975.

Finally, it is well to remember that sources we think of primarily as American often include foreign documents. This is especially true for English language publications. Two good examples are the Council of Planning Librarians Bibliographies and Public Affairs Information Service.

A SELECTED LIST OF BIBLIOGRAPHIC SOURCES OF NATIONAL DOCUMENTS
(OTHER THAN U.S.)

Prepared by Susan B. Roumfort
Legislative Reference Section

There is no current, comprehensive guide to the location and use of national documents. Listed below are a few sources that should be helpful in identifying publications issued by national governments other than the United States government.

Ball, Joyce, editor. Foreign Statistical Documents, a Bibliography of General, International Trade, and Agricultural Statistics.... (Stanford, Calif., Stanford University, Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace, 1967, 173p. $6.00.)
A specialized bibliography based on Stanford's collection with emphasis on publications using a western European language. Material is listed alphabetically by country and subdivided by the topics listed in the subtitle.

Conover, Helen F., comp. A Guide to Bibliographic Tools for Research in Foreign Affairs. 2d ed. with supp. 1958. (Reprint: Greenwood, $13.75.)
Not very much detail, but a good place to begin retrospective research.

Government Publications: a Guide to Bibliographic Tools. Prepared by Vladimir M. Palic. 4th edition. (Washington, Library of Congress, 1975, 44lp. $6.70, Supt. of Doc. #LC1.6/4:G74.)
Intended as a practical guide to government documents at all levels of government. The only current major guide to documents at the national level. Provides short annotations on current and retrospective documents. Includes some basic non-government bibliographic sources for areas not well covered by official sources. Earlier editions compiled by J. B. Childs. 1927 and 1930 editions under title: An account of government document bibliographies in the United States and elsewhere; third edition 1942: government document bibliographies in the United States and elsewhere.

Government Publications Review; an International Journal. (Elmsford, N.Y., Pergamon Press, Inc. 1974- . Bimonthly, $[illegible] annual subscription.)
Covers the field of documents production distribution, library handling and use of documents at all levels of government: federal, state and municipal, UN and international agencies and all countries. Each issue has a section on new documents.

Library of Congress Publications in Print. Washington, Government Printing Office, annual in spring.) Available free from the Library of Congress, Central Services Division.
The Library of Congress issues many bibliographic guides to the publications of other nations, particularly Latin America, Southern Europe and Africa. The catalog lists in-print items which cost $1.00 to $5.50 each. If your area is covered, the publications are good guides.

New York (State). University of the State of New York. Foreign Area Materials Center. Guide to Reference Sources on Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean, Middle East and North Africa, and Russia and East Europe: Selected and Annotated. Edited by James R. Kennedy, Jr. Occasional Paper No. 17. (Williamsport, Bro-Dart Publishing Co., 1972, 73p., o.p.)
Although primarily a guide to guides and general bibliographies, many official guides to national publications are listed.

Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin. (New York, Public Affairs Information Service, Inc., weekly and cumulated Bulletins, $100-$150 annual subscription.)
"Listing by subject current books, pamphlets, periodical articles, government documents, and any other useful library material in the field of economics and public affairs." Lists only material in the English language with emphasis on factual and statistical information. Originally designed to serve the needs of municipal and legislative reference librarians, its scope is now broadened to meet the needs of academic and special libraries. Thus, major foreign documents in the English language are listed fairly currently.

United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. Study of Current Bibliographies of National Official Publications. (Paris, UNESCO, 1958, 260p., o.p.)
Old basic short guide and inventory of national official publications.

U.S. Library of Congress. Reference Department. General Reference and Bibliography Division. Current National Bibliographies. (Washington, 1955, 132p. Reprint: Greenwood, $14.50.)
Old standard annotated list of all publications issued within a country. Governmental publications are listed as a sub-unit under each country.
